13 Saltisford Canal Centre

The Saltisford Arm of the Grand Union Canal has been transformed by volunteers from a site of dereliction into peaceful moorings set in a series of gardens and orchards.

Originally constructed in the 1790s as the terminus of the Warwick and Birmingham Canal, today the Saltisford Canal Arm offers a tranquil green oasis with a contemplation area and sensory garden.

The centre is open every day. The shop is closed at weekends from November – February.

12 The Court House

Designed and built over 300 years ago by Francis Smith, the Court House is a fine example of the elegant Georgian architecture that replaced much of the town following the devastating fire of 1694. Originally constructed as a tavern, it later served as a magistrates' court.

Today, its splendid ballroom is available to hire, providing a beautiful and historic setting for weddings, community events, and private functions.

10 The Lord Leicester

The Lord Leicester is one of Warwick's most remarkable historic sites - and one of the oldest veterans' charities in the world, still home to a community of former servicemen today.

Founded in 1571 by Robert Dudley, the site has provided a home for veterans for over 450 years, a tradition that continues to this day.

Visitors can explore buildings dating back to the 12th century, centred around a beautiful medieval timber-framed courtyard, along with two acres of gardens set on Warwick's historic town wall. Discover the story of the Brethren, explore at your own pace, or join a guided tour led by the residents themselves. www.lordleicester.com
